The Picnic by the Lake

It was a bright, sunny day, and Sam’s family decided to have a picnic by the lake. Sam was very excited because he loved spending time outdoors. His mother packed sandwiches, fruits, and a big bottle of lemonade. Sam and his little sister Lily carried a blanket and a basket full of snacks.

When they arrived at the lake, they found a shady spot under a big oak tree. Sam spread the blanket on the grass while Lily helped unpack the food. The lake sparkled in the sunlight, and ducks were swimming peacefully.

After eating, Sam and Lily played catch near the water. They also fed some breadcrumbs to the ducks, who quacked happily. Then, their father helped them build a small sandcastle near the lake’s edge.

In the afternoon, the family went on a short boat ride. Sam loved the gentle rocking of the boat and watched fish swimming below the surface. “This is the best day ever!” he said.
